Agenda:

Call to order - Dan

Media Production Club - Alex Stevenson, and Jim Coke

The Media production Club had few representatives sent to the meeting of SGA in order to ask for money for a recording device that costs $650. It allows recording, editing, and burning a project to a disk in one device. They still have some paperwork to fill out to become an official club. It was the general consensus of the body of SGA that the Media club was asking for the money for spring, and were not making a formal budget request. Dan motioned to table the subject until more information was provided by the Media club. Tyler seconded.

Request for Carrie Hermansen - Dan

The request was for vinyl stickers that was a map of the school, to be placed on the kiosks around the property of UW-Rock County. There were two possible places to get the vinyl stickers from:
- Budget Truck - $450 for three stickers, plus $70 per hour for work
- Fletch Graphic - $425 for three stickers plus $25 for mounting the stickers on the kiosks

The stickers go beyond what SGA originally wanted, and Dan motioned for SGA not to pay for the stickers, Hillary seconded, the vote was unanimous.

Discussion of Study Garden - Dan

Dan wanted to leave the winning study garden design up for students to see which one won. The Body of SGA thought it was a good idea.

Discussion of Rock the Mic. - Melissa
Melissa wanted a poster that would be able to be sent over email.

Discussion of the Giving Tree - Melissa
Melissa informed the body of SGA that the due date for giving tree applications was coming up, and donations should also be sent to Marylee. Melissa also asked for more help for Thursday December 18. Alley volunteered as well as Dan, and Hillary volunteered to wrap gifts.

Further Discussion of Rock the Mic.
SGA took inventory of what food items were left from the last Rock the Mic. Sara had extra supplies to give SGA. Aaron asked Dan to make a list of what’s needed for the next Rock the Mic. SGA would still sell donated popcorn for 25 cents, soda and baked goods for 50 cents.

Dan thanked everybody for their effort, and said it’s been fun time.
